

On Hessenberg matrices and their generalizations

Ludwig Elsner

Universität Bielefeld, Germany

Abstract

Recently, two different generalizations of the concept of a Hessenberg matrix have appeared in the literature. After discussing their connection and canonical forms we study the class of generalized Hessenberg matrices where the matrix and the transposed of its inverse have the same form.